MehBy RikkiVery informative but not nearly as titillating as I would have thought. I would suggest Poop Culture way above this book. That said, it's good info for writing papers or purely to glean facts

Elvis died on one and Charles V, ruler of Germany and Spain, was born on one. Although we use them every day, most of us know very little about toilets. This unique toilet history contends that civilization began, not with the written word, but with the toilet. Through advertisements, diaries, museum catalogs and anecdotes, this book explores the history of the toilet and the customs and manners surrounding it. Illustrations.
